Ensenada to Dedicate Robert Kennedy Park

Redondo Beach citizens have been invited by officials of their Sister City of Ensenada to attend dedication ceremonies for the new Robert F. Kennedy Children's Park this Saturday.

The program will start at 12 noon in the Mexican seaport, followed by a gala Mexican Fiesta featuring mariachi music and dancing. Redondo Beach people will be guests at the luncheon.

Honored guests include the Governor of Baja California, Ing. Raul Sanchez Viaz; Ensenada Mayor Jorge Olguin Hermida and his Redondo Beach counterpart William F. Czuleger; plus city, civic, and education leaders from both communities.

Assisting in the program will be Sister City Presidents Nico Saad of Ensenada and Dr. Jack W. McLaughlin of Redondo Beach. The park, designed for small and underprivileged youth, is on land donated by the state of Baja California, with labor donated by the city of Ensenada. Some $6,000 in new playground equipment will be donated by the Redondo Beach Sister City Committee and by local service clubs.

Redondo Beach organizations already pledging financial support are: Altrusa Club of Redondo Beach, Redondo-Palos Verdes Soroptimist Club, South Bay Serotoma Club, Redondo Marina Business and Professional Women's Club, BPOE 1378 Redondo Elks, Redondo Beach Rotary Club, and American Legion Auxiliary, South Bay Unit No. 184.

Peninsula Water Tank Under Way

Construction has been started on a new 12.5 million gallon underground storage tank, part of a $1.5 million improvement program instituted by the Palos Verdes Water Co.

The new tank will be built adjacent to the company's maintenance facility, 5837 Crest Road, Palos Verdes Peninsula.

Newest in the chain of storage tanks which supply water to the Peninsula at altitudes of up to 1,450 feet, the tank is also the largest. It will be completely underground, topped with a parking lot for company vehicles surrounded on all four sides by a landscaped area.

Tours of Hospital Offered

South Bay Hospital's Pediatric Department has announced a new orientation program, "Tours of Tots," which will be featured bi-monthly on Fridays from 3:30 to 4:30 p.m.

Herman Brandt, hospital board spokesman, said, "We have been aware of the special problems related to the hospitalization of a child and feel they very real fears and insecurities of both child and parent could be alleviated with a pre-operative visit to the hospital."

Mrs. Patricia Doyle, RN, head pediatric nurse, and a hospital volunteer will conduct the tour, concluding with refreshments. Children from ages 5 to 12 are eligible for the tour when accompanied by a parent.

Reservations will be made by the Pediatric Staff at South Bay Hospital.

HOSPITAL Board chairman Harrison Daigh stressed that any parents in the area are welcome to make reservations with their child for a tour.

Tours will include a look at admitting procedures, laboratory functions, the pharmacy, food services, and operating room. Operating room nurses will demonstrate apparel for the children. At the close of the tour, a specially prepared coloring booklet will be presented to each child.

Reservations will be made by the Pediatric Staff at South Bay Hospital.

France Is Topic of Lecturer

"The May Crisis in France and Its Aftermath" is the subject of the final lecture in the UCLA Extension program, "Tension Areas: the World Today," Tuesday, Nov. 19, 9:30 to 11 a.m., at Bullock's Del Amo Tea Room.

Simon Serfaty, assistant professor of political science at UCLA, who will examine the topic in depth, has done graduate work both in Paris and Casablanca, and is the author of numerous works dealing with De Gaulle and France.

Single admission tickets may be purchased at the door for $2.75.
